

Fareham Art Group Member's Competitions and Guidelines

We hold a number of competitions each year exclusively for our members. Each has its own individual rules of entry which are detailed below. Please check them carefully before preparing your entry.

Copyright rules – Applying to all competition entries

Please remember, you are responsible for the originality of your own work.

1. All competition entries must be an original work of art.
2. Copyright of all work remains the property of the artist, and Fareham Art Group will not be held responsible for any work entered into a competition by members that infringes copyright law.
3. You may work from photographs provided you have exclusive permission to do so in writing, or are the copyright owner. You may not include work from published photographs or images from the internet unless you have permission to use the image or own the copyright. Your source material must be made available on request. There are a number of internet sites which offer free images for artists use.
4. If you do not follow the competition rules this may result in your entry being refused or removed from the competition.
5. Where an award has been made and the entry is subsequently found to have breached copyright, the award will be removed and given to the person placed next in the competition.
6. Paintings created in artist-led workshops using the photographic reference provided by the artist are not eligible for entry into any Fareham Art Group competitions.

Note: We like to celebrate the achievements of our competition winners by sharing presentation photographs and pictures of the winning entries in our newsletter, on our website and our Facebook pages (note: We do tag or not name individuals on our group Facebook page).

We publish a list of Competition winners on Fareham Art Group website in our Competition Hall of Fame. If you do not want your photograph shared in this way please tell a member of Fareham Art Group Committee.

The Sylvanarth Trophy

The Sylvanarth Trophy was presented to Fareham Art Group in 2012 in memory of its founder members Sylvia and Arthur Slinn by their son Ray. Ray asked that the trophy be awarded to "encourage new and less experienced artists" so we have linked it to our April (Molly Dicker) drawing competition. To enable a wider group of members to participate in this competition the award will become the Fareham Art Group's 'President's Pick'. The President will choose the painting that she feels merits the award, and will explain the criteria for her decision.

Competition Rules

1. The competition is open to members of Fareham Art Group.
2. Entries may be in any suitable drawing media for example pen, ink, pencils, charcoal, pastel etc. For the purposes of this competition, drawing means 'without adding water or other wetting agent/medium'.
3. The competition is judged by the President and the trophy awarded to the 'President's Pick'.
4. The trophy is awarded for first place.
5. Certificates are awarded for first, second and third place. In line with the Molly Dicker trophy which runs concurrently, Commended certificates are not awarded on this occasion.
6. The competition winner keeps the trophy until the following year's competition but must return it to the Committee before or at the subsequent Sylvanarth Trophy Competition.
7. Please remember, you are responsible for the originality of your own work. Any entry found breaching copyright will be removed from the competition.

The Val Carter (Wildlife) Award

Val Carter was a member of Fareham Art group for over 30 years, and the Groups Chief Tutor for much of that time. Val was an accomplished artist and worked in all media. She took part enthusiastically in workshops and competitions throughout her membership and greatly encouraged others in their painting.

Val's family has donated one of her sculptures which we will award each year in her memory. Val was a longstanding member of an international wildlife association, and passionate about painting wildlife. With this in mind we are introducing a new competition focussed on wildlife each year.

Competition Rules

1. The competition is open to members of Fareham Art Group and is aimed at artists of all abilities.
2. The definition of wildlife is: living things, for example, insects, mammals, birds, and fish that are neither human nor domesticated.
3. Entries may be in any media.
4. The competition is judged by an independent invited guest artist.
5. The trophy is awarded for first place.
6. Certificates are awarded for first, second and third place, and certificates of merit (Commended Certificates) may be awarded at the discretion of the judge.
7. The competition winner keeps the trophy until the following year's competition but must return it to the Committee before or at the subsequent Val Carter trophy competition.
8. Please remember, you are responsible for the originality of your own work. Any entry found breaching copyright will be removed from the competition.

Fareham Art Group

Member's Competitions and Guidelines

The Don Parmiter Trophy

Don was a member of the Fareham Art Group for many years and for one year had been the Chairman. Don always supported the exhibitions and competitions entering some superb oil paintings. On many occasions his paintings were competition winners or voted "Best in Show" at our exhibitions. Don died in January 2009 and each year at our annual exhibition the Don Parmiter trophy is presented to the member whose painting receives the most votes from visitors.

Competition Rules

1. The competition is open to members of Fareham Art Group and is aimed at artists of all abilities.
2. Entries may be in any media.
3. The competition is judged by the visitors to the annual exhibition and the trophy awarded to the artist whose entry receives the most votes.
4. The trophy is awarded for first place.
5. The competition winner keeps the trophy until the following year's competition but must return it to the Committee before or at the subsequent exhibition.
